Introduction

All India Financial Institutions (AIFIs), in the course of financial intermediation, are exposed to various financial and non-financial risks, of which credit risk is the one of the most significant risks. If not managed effectively, credit risk may have ramifications for a range of other risk categories too. As credit exposures of AIFIs encompass varied sectors, borrower types and products with their own idiosyncratic complexities as well as systemic implications due to interconnectedness among themselves, credit risk management of AIFIs involve a range of prudential tools, including statutory and regulatory restrictions / prohibitions on certain activities. Recognising this, the Reserve Bank has, from time to time, issued guidelines to strengthen credit risk management practices.

Accordingly, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 45L of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 and all other provisions / laws enabling the Reserve Bank of India (hereinafter called the Reserve Bank) in this regard, Reserve Bank being satisfied that it is necessary and expedient in the public interest so to do, hereby issues these Directions hereinafter specified.

17D. This Section sets out general principles and procedures to be followed for prudent risk management of loan to related parties, wherever allowed.

17E. The Board shall have the overall responsibility of ensuring that suitable mechanisms are put in place for implementation of the policy on lending to related parties by the AIFI.

17F. The credit policy (hereinafter called the policy) of an AIFI, as required in terms of the extant directions, shall contain specific provisions relating to 'lending to related parties' in accordance with the provisions of these Directions. The policy shall prescribe, inter alia, additional safeguards to address the risks emanating from lending to related parties.

17G. The policy shall also have specific provisions for lending to 'specified employees' of the AIFI and their relatives.

17H. Further, the policy shall as a part of the whistleblowing mechanism, encourage employees to communicate confidentially and without the risk of reprisal, legitimate concerns about illegal, unethical, or questionable loans to related parties; and eliminate quid pro quo arrangements, if any.

17I. The policy shall specify aggregate limits for loans towards related parties. Within this aggregate limit, there shall be sub-limits for loans to a single related party and a group of related parties. These limits shall be within the extant prudential exposure limits prescribed by the Reserve Bank.

C.2 Materiality Threshold

17J. Loans to related parties, which are not prohibited in terms of this Chapter of these Directions, or which have been exempted from prescribed prohibitions in these Directions, except (i) credit facilities fully secured by cash or liquid securities and in accordance to prescribed LTV and valuation norms for such securities and (ii) Interbank loans, shall be subject to a materiality threshold as per the credit policy, which shall not be higher than the following ceilings:

Less than 100,000	₹5 crore
Asset size based on the last audited balance sheet. For loans, materiality threshold shall apply at individual transaction level.

17K. Materiality thresholds may vary for different categories of loan to related parties and borrowers as per the AIFI's policy.

17L. All loans above the prescribed materiality threshold shall be sanctioned either by the Board or the 'Committee on Lending to Related Parties' of the AIFI. As regards loans below the materiality threshold, the same can be sanctioned by appropriate authority in terms of powers delegated to them.

C.3 Recusal of Interested Parties

17M. Directors, KMP, or 'specified employees' shall recuse themselves from deliberations and decision on loan proposals, or contracts and arrangements, involving themselves or their related parties. Such recusal shall also extend to deliberations and decisions relating to any subsequent material changes to the terms of such loans, including one-time settlements, write-offs, waivers, enforcement of security, implementation of resolution plans, etc.

19. It is advised that AIFIs shall ensure that non-individual borrowers with aggregate exposure of ₹5 crore and above from banks (Scheduled Commercial Banks (excluding Regional Rural Banks), Local Area Banks, Small Finance Banks, and Primary (Urban) Co-operative Banks) and Financial Institutions (All India Financial Institutions and NBFCs (including HFCs)) obtain LEI codes.

Aggregate sanctioned limit or outstanding balance, whichever is higher, shall be reckoned for the purpose. Lenders shall ascertain the position of aggregate exposure based on information available either with them, or Central Repository of Information on Large Credits (CRILC) database or declaration obtained from the borrower.

20. Borrowers who fail to obtain LEI codes from an authorised Local Operating Unit (LOU) shall not be sanctioned any new exposure nor shall they be granted renewal / enhancement of any existing exposure.
